Springtime Bordeaux Values

Here are a few of my value picks for near-term enjoyment.

2001 Château de Franc Cerisiers, Cotes de Francs ......$13.99

Hubert de Bouard of Angélus fame makes this delicious wine. The 2001 shows good density and ripe black currant notes intermixed with some spice box and tobacco. The wine is sweet, round and generous.

1994 Château Ormes de Pez, St-Estèphe.....$16.99

According to Parker: "...good ripeness, fine color, and moderate tannin in the finish ... good flesh and concentration in an uncomplicated style. It should drink well for 7-10 years." (04/96) He is correct, and the timing could not be better.

2001 Château Cantemerle, Médoc.....$19.99

One of our favorite properties, and we certainly love the 2001 vintage. Fruit forward wine that will be at its best soon. Great value.

1996 Les Hauts de Pontet, Pauillac .....$21.99

If you liked the '97, you will love this one. Quite rich and powerful for the price.

1994 Château Gruaud-Larose, St-Julien .....$29.99

This wine has really blossomed in the last year. Still has mid-palate sweetness and some tannin at the end. Very nice and look at the price!

2000 Brunello di Montalcino

Brunello di Montalcino became an overnight sensation with the 2002 spring release of the 1997 vintage. The soft, forward and very ripe fruit character of the vintage gave the wines power, density and color, and the lush texture made it easy for people to drink while critics threw 90-point scores at them like rice at a wedding. Brunello di Montalcino's reputation was made, even as it was followed by the simpler yet still balanced and fresh 1998 vintage (perfect for restaurant and mid-term drinking...something the aforementioned critics seemed to miss). The 1999 vintage released last spring was more classically styled; sangiovese's long, linear feel was more evident, wrapped in concentrated layers of fruit and brilliant aromatics balanced with lengthy finishes and again bushels of 90-point scores. It was a vintage where you really had to work to find one of the few wines that weren't really good. The 1999 vintage solidified Brunello di Montalcino's reputation as one of Italy's greatest wines and surely by now Italy's most famous.

The 2000 vintage in Montalcino started well. Good weather allowed the flowering to set without problem, but an almost ideal (if slightly dry) spring was followed by a drought that started in June and continued almost to the end of August. This resulted in some shriveling of berries, leaves dying and slightly tougher skins. Late August rains allowed the vines to recover, though there were some localized hail problems. September through the end of harvest went well, allowing the grapes to ripen fully. The lack of water coupled with some exceedingly high temperatures caused acidity in many wines to be distinctly lower than the preceding, classically styled 1999 vintage. The lower acidity in many cases shortened the wines' length, making the tannins much more evident. Firstly, the key to this vintage was to have vineyards with root systems significantly developed to protect against the lack of water in the vineyard. Unfortunately, even in some areas, the lack of water was felt due to the extreme drought. It is important to realize why this is so essential; it is illegal to irrigate in Montalcino. You can't just turn the spigot when Mother Nature is on vacation. Secondly, work in the vineyard and the selection process (triage) to separate out "problem" bunches was also key to the success of a finished wine. And thirdly, winemakers had to understand what was necessary during fermentation and aging (Brunello di Montalcino has one of the longest gestation periods around, a full four years of aging before it may be sold in January, five years after the harvest) so as not to emphasize the tannins in the wine. Those who worked well, with good vineyard sites and the necessary adjustments in their winemaking, made powerful, rich and complex wines. In Montalcino one would call this vintage un po gattopardo (roughly translated: "a little like a leopard," or in colloquial English: "spotty"). Unlike the previous 1999 vintage, where selection for the consumer was almost irrelevant the wines were so uniformly good, it will Continued on page 2... be the foremost consideration for all in the 2000 vintage, and it will separate those estates that know sacrifice, how to adjust and make good wine in all vintages, from those that are still learning. (Thanks to Jan Erbach of Pian dell'Orino for his notes on the 2000 growing season, which I used frequently.)

Unlike Bordeaux, where winemaking is almost identical estate to estate, Montalcino represents a veritable panoply of styles, full of the eccentricities of the owner or winemaker and, interestingly enough, the shape and age of the cellar. Traditionally, the long aging period was carried out in "botte" (these are large slavonian oak barrels that are generally about 25-35 hectoliters or 9,000 to 13,000 gallons, though sometimes larger) for three years or more. Nowadays, with the input of winemaking styles from all over the world, there is no one style in Montalcino. I remember last year walking down a narrow street in Montalcino listening to a group of four men in their late 70s arguing with each other over the problems that exist for Brunello today. One was adamant that the problem was "barriques" (the 60-gallon barrels that are the standard in Bordeaux or California wineries) arguing that it was changing the character so much you couldn't tell the wine was Brunello. Another responded resoundingly, No! The problem was the new vineyard practices, planting too close together and green harvesting (thinning the crop before the grapes turn color). That was the problem. A third played the xenophobe card saying it was all of those foreigners or Milanese businessmen that didn't understand Montalcino. The fourth smiled knowingly, saying you're all wrong. It's the damned merlot! Everybody's adding it! (Brunello by law must be 100% sangiovese). Needless to say, there are a myriad of styles of winemaking today as well as opinions.

Those who know me know I'm never short of opinions, especially on the subject of Italian wines. Many would think from listening to me that like the first old Italian guy, I am an opponent of barriques. Nothing could be further from the truth. What I dislike is the obvious nature of a barrique, the dominant woody nose or flavor, and the structure that would not otherwise be there. Take a woman wearing makeup. For me it should seem as if she isn't wearing any. If it looks like she used a trowel to apply an inch-thick layer, it's too obvious. I don't like the obvious. That isn't to say that the use of botte is the answer, as there are inherent problems here too. The key is to make a wine that reflects the unique terroir of your vineyards and expresses the maximum character of sangiovese in harmony and balance. OK, enough metaphysical musings. Let's get to some wines!

2000 Pian dell'Orino Brunello di Montalcino ($36.99)

The nose explodes out of the glass, a chocolaty, plumy, spicy array of complex wild fruits that envelops you. On the palate the wine is bold and dramatic with lots of mid-palate structure with muscular shoulders. A real depth of flavor flows from the chocolaty, plumy nose to more herb and leather touching on a taste of the earth but finishing with ripe, yet very focused and structured plumy fruit. The wine's powerful structure leaves a dramatic presence in the finish that lingers wistfully behind the columns of power. Drink now with a couple of hours in a decanter or age; it will shoulder another 7-10 years easily.

Two Exciting Italian Winemaker Dinners!

Dario and Elsa Ermacora are flying in from Friuli to host two winemaker dinners featuring their Gambero Rosso-award-winning wines. Four whites and three reds will be paired with wonderful Italian food! These might not be familiar restaurant names to many of you Bay Area folks, but I (Greg St. Clair, K&L's Italian Wine buyer) am extraordinarily picky when it comes to Italian food, and I chose these restaurants specifically because I love dining at them. Monday night, May 9, at La Strada Ristorante Italiano in Palo Alto, Chef Donato Scotti's classic cuisine will delight your senses ($94.99), and Tuesday night, May 10, at Albona Ristorante Istriano in San Francisco, Bruno Viscovi's Istrian cuisine will astound you ($79.99). Complete menus at www.klwines.com.

It's April: We're in Bordeaux and at the Crossroads!

Already the questions start: What's the scoop on the new vintage of 2004? Well, it's a little early to tell, but what we do know is that 2004 was a very abundant crop. This is an important factor that figures into the pricing. For example, the 2002 and 2003 vintages produced 50% of normal.

Three different people (all good sources) from Bordeaux have told me that the wines will be very good and a return to the classic style of Bordeaux. Our dilemma in 2004 is the weak American dollar vs the Euro. This situation is not unique, and we have dealt with it before and from both sides. In 1984 it was 10 Francs to the dollar and lots of happy American buyers. In 1990 it was 4.3 Francs to the dollar. We were in a position of power when the now famous 2000 vintage was released and on the opposite end when the 2003s were released. For most fans of Bordeaux it really did not matter, as both of these vintages were crazily hyped and had tremendous world wide demand. That is not the case in 2004, and that is why we are at the crossroads.

At a recent dinner, I was lucky enough to have the ears of over a dozen châteaux owners. I asked them how important the U.S. market was and where (numerically) in terms of the world marketplace the U.S. ranked. Every one answered extremely important: first or second in the world. I asked them to please remember this fact when pricing the 2004 vintage. I also warned them that if the wines are too expensive, it could crash the marketplace for the third time in 30 years (as it did in 1973 and 1998). We all want to do good business and offer value to our customers. When you read this, we will be in Bordeaux as we are every year, tasting over 1,000 wines and making our selections. But for now it is time to issue last call on 2002 pre-arrivals, as the wines are arriving this year. We liked many, and we were tough on the selections. Fine values include:

2002 Ch. Cantemerle ($16.99) Medium bodied, soft and floral with hints of chocolate and minerals. Will drink well young.

2002 Ch. d'Armaillac (Inquire) A very serious wine is made here, dark with full tannins and good ripe fruit. An exceptional wine for the $$ to age.

2002 Ch. Lagrange ($28.99) I was taken by this wine at every tasting. A big rich wine with sweet fruit and purity, round enough to drink young.

2002 Haut-Bailly ($31.99) Another wine that wowed us at every tasting. A floral nose of roses, violets and minerals is followed by deep firm fruit. This wine will age easy 10-15 years.

2002 Ch. Gruaud-Larose ($29.99) This estate is on a big roll of outstanding quality since 1999 and has been on the top of my list since then. This wine has a good deal of complexity; lush round fruit. A touch herbal, spicy and exotic.

2002 Ch. Palmer (Inquire) It always amazes me that Palmer can make such a masculine wine loaded with deep fruit but with great fragrance and class. The 2002 is a perfect combination of power, elegance and harmony.

Bordeaux for Spring Drinking

The days are getting longer and the weather is drying up. Here are three tasty whites (and one delicious red) Bordeaux to help you enjoy the Spring!

003 Marjosse Blanc, Bordeaux ($9.99) Pierre Lurton of Châteaux Cheval Blanc has made this outstanding blend of 85% semillon and 15% sauvignon blanc from the Entre deux Mer region of Bordeaux. Round, bright and juicy, this will work equally well with food or simply on its own. Tasty white Bordeaux for $10. WOW!

2002 Grand L'Enclos du Cerons blanc ($13.99 .375ml) Cerons is an area just to the North of Sauternes and Barsac known for producing value-priced sweet wines. This 100% semillon is sweet, fairly complex, lively and a great match for foie gras, cheese or fruit-based desserts.

2002 Pavillon Blanc, Margaux ($45.99) Lovers of white Bordeaux need no introduction to this 100% sauvignon blanc sourced from a 29.6-acre vineyard planted at Château Margaux. 90 points from the Wine Spectator, which had this to say about what is arguably the best white in the Médoc: "Pretty lemon, dried flowers and dried fruits on the nose. Full-bodied with medium acidity and a lemony, white pepper and fruit finish." Act fast as this will sell out.

2000 Bellerose Figeac Reserve, St-Emilion ($29.99) This delicious, low acid, rich fruit bomb is drinking terrifically. Here is a flashy, soft and seductive wine for those looking to satisfy their hedonistic side right NOW. There is no reason to wait. Dive right in!

DIRECT BUYS FROM FRANCE

K&L buys many imported wines directly from the producers or negociants. The advantages are twofold: We taste the wines at the property and negotiate with the seller, often finding wines that are not available in the U.S. market. And we get the wines to our customers for less. There are no middlemen taking a percentage while passing it through distribution. You reap the benefits of direct buying by getting outstanding, hand-picked, best-value wines.

2002 J.P. Becker Gewürztraminer Grand Cru$18.99
2001 J.P. Becker Riesling Grand Cru Froehn$18.99
Check our website for notes on these three new arrivals.
2002 Riesling, Grand Cru, "Eichberg," Charles Baur$16.99
Nuances of peach, Kaffir lime, and guyaba are absolutely intoxicating. This is a spectacular example of Alsatian Riesling.
2002 Gewürztraminer, Grand Cru, "Pfersigberg," Baur$19.99
Very racy and so clean! Ruby grapefruit, jasmine blossom and lychee are popular descriptors for the varietal, and this one's got them in spades.
2003 Sauvignon Blanc Haut Poitou, Demoiselles de Brizay$9.99
2001 Sancerre Grand Pichot, Pierre Cherrier$15.99
2003 Sancerre Blanc, Franck Millet-The best value in the Loire$12.99
2002 Sancerre "Cuvee Insolite" Franck Millet$19.99
Red Bordeaux/Sweet Wines
2002 Château Souvenir, Bordeaux$9.99
After decanting, the blackberry aromas and flavors really come through.
2001 Château Delord, Premiere Cotes de Bordeaux$9.99
"Provides fresh cherry-like fruit, soft tannins, and is just a joy to consume on a regular basis at a great price," Jim Barr
2000 Château de Birot, Premiere Cotes de Bordeaux$10.99
Lots of structure, with broad fruit and complexity, with a roasted coffee bean to cassis nose, soft tannins, moderate complexity and near-term drinkability.
2000 Château de Viaud, Lalande-de-Pomerol$14.99
Spicy, lively wine. Rich and ripe. Enjoy over the next ten years.
2000 Fournas de Bernadotte, Pauillac$14.99
This special cuvee is delicious. Made by the Pichon-Lalande crew.
2001 Château Haut Vigneau, Pessac$15.99
Soft and fruity on the palate with some underlying mineral notes. Owned by Eric Perrin (son of Anthony Perrin of Carbonnieux fame).
2000 Château Caronne St Gemme, Haut-Médoc$15.99
Absolutely delicious 2000-superb value. Enjoy now.
2001 l'Enclos du Lezongars, Cotes de Bordeaux$15.99 Superb value with good extraction and forward fruit. Fine balance.
2001 Château Bois Martin, Pessac$17.99
From the Perrin family of Carbonnieux fame. Toasty, elegant, good stuffing.
2002 Grand Enclos de Château Cerons Rouge, Graves$19.99
Elegant, with mineral notes and red fruit aromas, this wine has ripe berry flavors and smooth, velvety tannins.
2000 Château Pressac, St-Emilion$26.99
Quite rich and full-bodied wine. Decant one hour or cellar a few years.
2002 Petit Védrines, Sauternes (.375ml)$10.99
2001 Petit Védrines, Sauterne -Second wine of Doisy-Vedrines$22.99
Southern France/Rhône
2000 Côtes du Rhône Rosé "Toques," Vignerons Beaume$7.99
2003 Côtes du Ventoux Res Rouge, Beaumont du Ventoux$8.99
Aromas of very ripe blackberries with notes of peppers and garrigue. It is subtle in the mouth with a good structure, finishing with soft and ripe tannins.

2003 Beaumes de Venise "Chapelle Notre Dame d'Aubune"Inquire
2001 Côtes du Rhône, Domaine Montfaucon
2003 Vacqueyras, Domaine Mas du Bouquet$10.99
Bright raspberry flavors meshed with underlying spiciness.
2003 Côtes du Rhône, Château Malijay$10.99
Made from a small selection of syrah that was thought enough of to be vinified separately. The palate is lush and dense, with savory fruit and delectable spice.
2003 Rasteau Rosé, Domaine Girasols$10.99
The rosé is a lighter, fresher version of the reds with pink fruit flavors.
2001 Valreas "Domaine du Val Des Rois," Bouchard$11.99
Syrah rather than grenache is the dominant varietal. The moderately rich palate is focused with bright red and dark berry fruit, earth and a touch of spice.
2000 Vacqueyras, Cecile Chassagne$11.99
Very ripe and spicy with jammy raspberry flavors. Delightful and affordable.
2001 Corbieres Domaine Serres "Cuvee Henri Serres"$13.99  A blend of old-vine syrah and carignan aged for one year in barrique. A serious wine, with dark fruit backed by chewy tannins, hints of oak and herbal spice.
2001 Côtes du Rhône "Baron Louis" Domaine Montfaucon$14.99
2001 Rasteau, Domaine Girasols$15.99
2001Côtes du Rhône "VV," Domaine Girasols$16.99

White/Red Burgundy
2003 Bourgogne Chardonnay, Signature, Champy
2002 Marsannay Rouge, Maison Champy$17.99
Lovely weight, good balance spiciness are hallmarks of this classic Marsannay.
2002 St-Aubin, Murgers Dent de Chien, 1er Cru, Champy$29.99 A nose of toasty oak, slate and minerals. On the palate it has nice richness, great length and finishes with a nice spiciness, balance and minerality.
April Bordeaux

2002 Doisy-Védrines, Sauternes ($25.99) One of our better deals in Sauternes, this is full and concentrated, with the botrytis taking center stage. Round with plenty of citrus and honey tones on the nose and baked yellow fruits on the palate. Drink now or hold for a decade.

2000 Lynch Moussas, Paulliac ($30.99) This is just another example of the spectacular nature of the 2000 vintage. This wine is appealing on all levels, showing ripe crushed fruits and dark berries with a touch of oaky spice on the nose. The palate is rich and layered with dark fruits, soft tannins, spice and great length. Great for the dyed-in-thewool Bordeaux fan or the Bordeaux novice.

1998 Poujeaux, Médoc ($19.99) This is consistently one of our favorite Médoc wines. It always over performs for a very reasonable price point, and this vintage is true to form. The nose is full of ripe sweet fruit with toasty oak and minerals. Medium to full bodied, good depth and ripe tannins accompany the berry and spice notes that are found in the nose. This is drinking so well right now that I doubt you can keep it in the cellar for another 5 to 10 years.

2002 Grand Enclos du Cerons Rouge, Graves ($19.99) This estate might be best known for its sweet white wine, but this is a Graves red to keep your eyes on. It is a fifty/fifty blend of cabernet sauvignon and merlot that is aged in barriques, half of which are new, for 12 to 18 months. Bright red fruits are delightfully underpinned with minerality. Medium to full bodied with ripe tannins and deep fruit tones. Ideal for medium-term cellaring, or it will open up nicely with 45 minutes to an hour of decanting. —Kirk Walker

Rhône Bargains for the Month of April

Here are four outstanding, very affordable Rhône wines that are perfect for any meal and any occasion.

2003 Vacqueyras, Domaine Mas de Bouquet ($10.99) A blend of 65% grenache and 35% syrah, this Vacqueras has tons of bright raspberry fruit that wafts out of the glass gracefully to the nose. Rich, earthy and round, it has fullness on the palate and red fruits of impressive depth. A perfect foil for duck or goose.

2001 Côtes du Rhône, Montfaucon "Baron Louis" ($14.99) An old favorite finally returns! Located across the river from Châteauneuf-du Pape, this 88-acre estate produces wines that are rich and focused. A marvelous nose of violets and rosemary. In the mouth, very full black fruits with plum and white pepper flavors. A blend of 59% grenache, 15% cinsault, 10% syrah and 16% miscellaneous varietals. The richness of this wine will allow it to be paired with lamb or venison.

2001 Rasteau, Domaine Girasols ($15.99) One of our most popular producers from the Rhône. An intriguing blend of 65% grenache, 10% syrah, 12% cinsault and 13% mourvèdre. Assertive black pepper in both the nose and the mouth. However, the richness of the syrah fruit shines through on the palate. Black cherries, boysenberries and nuanced spices make for a really superb wine. Lush, rich, long finish. Serve with barbecued chicken or pork.

2002 Domaine des Senechaux, Châteauneuf-du-Pape ($19.99) I love this wine so much, I just had to mention it again. A relatively small production of 5,500 cases insures quality and a "hands on" attention to detail. Composed of 65% (old vine) grenache, 20% syrah and 15% mourvèdre, this unfiltered wine has scents of cherries, lavender and herbs. In the mouth, supple tannins mingle with ripe cherry fruit and well-integrated oak. Very approachable even in its youth. I hope that you enjoy these selections!

Trey's Easter Picks

Last month I attended the Premier Napa Barrel Auction in St. Helena. The Barrel Tasting was mostly 2003s, which have not received favorable reviews so far from the wine critics. To me the wines showed well at this stage. There is definitely more variation between wineries than there was in 2001 and 2002. In 2003 a winery really had to do a lot of work in the vineyards to come up with a solid wine. We vistited and tasted at Shafer, Duckhorn, Schramsberg, Chappellet, Kuleto, Spring Mountain and a St. Helena appellation tasting at the Hudson House. Schramsberg is a great stop if you are ever in Napa. With a history that dates back to the 19th century, Schramsberg has always been considered the benchmark for California sparkling wines. The 1998 Schramsberg Reserve was my favorite wine we tasted. It was rich, full and spicy in the mouth, with a long silky finish. The blend is 75% pinot noir and 25% chardonnay. This month we have some great buys in California Cab. The 2001 Silverado Napa Cabernet ($29.99) is a steal. This winery has consistently produced solid Cabs without ever going crazy on the price. The '01 shows intense flavors of cassis, currants and dark mocha with a firm structure and ripe tannins. Another great buy is the 2001 Terra Valentine Spring Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon ($26.99). Spring Mountain Cab for well under $30 is almost unheard of these days. The '01 shows that classic lead-pencil, spicy almost minty quality that you can get in some California Cabs. The 2001 Iron Horse "Proprietor Grown" Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon ($26.99) is my last pick for this month. 90 points from Robert Parker, the Iron Horse is loaded with berry and cherry fruit, hints of toasty oak and a firm but ripe finish.

Blockbuster "Cult Style" Wines from Lodi

Yes that's right: Lodi. And don't think we're pushing gallon jugs of plonk on you; these wines are great raging monsters, from an overlooked wine region with tons of history and a winery you may not (yet) know about: Michael~David Vineyards. These guys are doing it all, making inky black, rich wines that somehow manage to avoid any portiness or VA notes. Future cult wines to be sure! Stock up on your toothpaste and take a big bite of these beauties! Drink enough of them and you might even understand the poetry on the back labels.

2003 Windmill Old Vines Zinfandel ($9.99) So, how did they got this much wine into a bottle for under $10? Who cares, this stuff is delicious! Big, bold and rich with lovely blackberry fruit, an outrageously lush and supple texture, yummy vanillin oak and a long mouth-coating finish. Incredible wine you can drink night after night without a big hit to your wallet. This wine is sure to be a K&L favorite.

2003 Sixth Sense Syrah ($14.99) A sixth sense is needed with this wine, since it seems to fill the other five nicely. Juicy and sweet plump ripe black fruits mixed with dusty cocoa and dark chocolate, pretty chunky with a touch of sweet tar and telltale oak, this is a thick syrah with black inky thickness mingling with plump and juicy blue fruit.

2003 Earthquake Petite Sirah ($29.99) Shock and awe in a bottle, Earthquake is the right name for this wine! This is an enormous powerhouse, showing thick blackberry/blueberry syrup and casis liqueur with full throttle and unctuously dense concentrated fruit. Plenty of tannins hold the core together, and lots of wood is matched by the huge quantity of fruit. This is absolutely black in the glass; don't wear white when drinking this baby. Who needs Screaming Birds of Prey, when you can get this gem for $30?

—Shaun Green

San Francisco Focus

This month I want to tell you about a small producer in California. T-Vine Cellars is a one-man operation owned by Greg Brown. He only just hired his second employee a couple months ago after about 15 years in the business. A former finance man, he gave up the suit and tie for wine and yoga. Greg is one of the nicest people you will ever meet and has a talent for making balanced, ready-to-drink wines. I salute Greg and all he stands for.

2002 T-Vine Napa Zinfandel ($26.99) High tones of raspberries and cherries are found in this 2002 Zinfandel with notes of spice and a sweet melody that sticks with you, long after the bottle is empty. Richly layered and opulent but never out of focus, this one is just dying for a big fat T-bone. 624 cases produced.

2002 T-Vine Napa Petite Sirah ($30.99) A rich, ripe wine with lots of body and finish. Imagine you have just bitten into a slice of blueberry pie and the flavor just surrounds your taste buds and won't let go. A must have for any Petite Sirah fan. 695 cases produced.

2002 T-Vine Napa Syrah Frediani ($30.99) "To fully relish the experience of wine you must wallow in it like a child in the mud.... No pretensions, simply a joy ride of the senses. Wallow in my mud," Greg Brown. With its hints of vanilla and cinammon, it would not be out of place at your breakfast table! 624 cases produced.

See you in the City...

-Mike Jordan

Valleys, Creeks and Rivers

Russian River Valley is a great place to grow grapes. Kept relatively cool by the regular intrusion of evening coastal fog from the Pacific, the growing climate is perfect for Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. With tremendous soil diversity caused by million-year-old geographic influences, the setting is complete for outstanding and intriguing efforts by dedicated producers.

On a recent visit through Sonoma, Porter Creek Vineyards, named after a major tributary to the Russian River, stood out as a fantastic example of what can be done with Pinot Noir. The 2002 Porter Creek "Fiona Hill" Russian River Pinot Noir ($24.99) has a terrifically expressive nose—classic for the region, with a great balancing act of concentration and grace. A special treat to drink and enjoy with food, I can hardly ask for a more complete Pinot Noir.

Carignan, a little-known variety mainly used in Rhône blends and some parts of Spain for its pleasant, uncomplicated character, is rarely seen on its own. But wait! 2003 Porter Creek "Angeli Vineyard" Old Vine Carignan ($14.99) instantly struck me with its unusually tremendous depth and fruit gravity. Made from old vines, (no one knows how old) this was one of the more memorable wines of my trip. The great thing is, since carignan is never in high demand, it never sells for much, so it's often a terrific value!

Dry Creek Valley is typically known as a hotbed for great Zins. In fact, we didn't carry a Cabernet from this part of town until we stumbled on this beauty. I do mean that, you know. The 2002 Fritz Dry Creek Cabernet Sauvignon ($23.99) is a beautiful Cabernet. Produced from a terraced hillside vineyard 2000 feet above sea level on the northern end of the valley where hardly anything but rugged vines grows, this is unequivocally delicious. No, its not Napa or Bordeaux cab...this, my friends, is lip-smackingly good Cab from the middle of Zinfandel country. In fact, it's the kind of Cabernet that's just out to let loose, have a good time, and make everyone else head for cover.

South of the Border

Here are a few gems from my recent trip to the land of beef, gauchos and tango: Argentina!

2004 Dominio del Plata Crios Rosé of Malbec ($9.99) Spring has sprung, and it's time to start thinking about great rosé. This unique offering is made from a saignee of malbec. Fresh and full of spice, enjoy this blockbuster pink with grilled salmon or roast chicken.

2004 Dominio del Plata Crios Torrontes ($12.99) Susan Balbo is the master of Torrontes! Somewhat Viognier-like, this Torrontes is bright, fresh with good body on the palate and a long, crisp finish. I love this wine grilled sea bass or shrimp!

2003 Mapema Tempranillo ($14.99) Here's the classic Spanish grape with Argentine flare. Full of black cherry fruit, hints of vanilla oak with a touch of spice, this Mapema red is a real crowd pleaser. This would be the perfect wine to serve with a garlicky pork roast.

2003 La Posta del Vinatiero Bonarda, Estela Armando Vineyard ($17.99) This lovely single-vineyard Bonarda is the cream of the crop! Planted in 1963, this family-owned vineyard produces high-quality fruit with deep, intense flavors. Full of ripe berry fruit and peppery spice, this wine would blow away most Zins from California. I love this wine with grilled lamb chops!

2002 Luca Syrah ($29.99) Laura Catena has made a big bold red that is world class. From the dark ripe blackberry fruit on the palate to the long, focused finish, the Luca Syrah has great depth and breed. The white pepper spice in this wine makes it a great match for your favorite steak! Buen Cata!

2003 Mad Fish Unwooded Chardonnay Western Australia ($10.99); 2004 Babich Unwooded Chardonnay Hawkes Bay New Zealand ($8.99) Here are two wonderful expressions of the chardonnay grape. These are anything but fat unfocused wines with no acidity. The Babich is crisp and snappy with notes of green apple and citrus giving it a "mini" Chablis character. The Mad Fish comes off richer with a bouquet of pear, nectarine, honey and (though unoaked) a spice note. On the palate the wine is creamy with fine supporting acidity and very good length.

2002 Grant Burge Barossa Vines Shiraz South Australia ($8.99);
2002 Vasse Felix "Adam's Road" Shiraz Margaret River W. Australia ($14.99) The Grant Burge Shiraz delivers the classic Barossa Valley flavor profile of black fruits, pepper, licorice and a meaty note. The wine is tank fermented and matured in American and French oak. Good acidity keeps the wine juicy and persistent on the palate. Adam's Road is a new tier in the Vasse Felix portfolio offering great value from this top-notch Margaret River producer. Showing the elegance that Margaret River is famous for, this Shiraz has aromas of blueberry and blackberry fruit with a hint of violets. On the palate there is good structure with fine chalky tannins and good length.

2003 Possums Vineyard Shiraz McLaren Vale South Australia ($27.99) The fruit for this wine comes from the Blewitt Springs region of McLaren Vale, which is a little higher in altitude and gives more lifted aromas of blueberry, black raspberry, violets and a wisp of lavender. The wine is lush with fine supple tannins on the palate and notes of vanilla, earth and a trace of minerals. Try it with grilled beef or lamb. Good stuff! Cheers!

The 15th Page Man: The Ericstone!!

There is little new to say about the man and his wine that has become somewhat of an institution here at K&L, yet my friends, the story this year has a bit of a twist you may enjoy knowing. The Man is Johannes Leitz, The Wine is the Dragonstone, and this year the lackey behind the scenes is none other than our own Eric Story. He had the distinct privilege of working the entire harvest last year at Weingut Josef Leitz in Rüdesheimer and from what I have been told has left his mark not only on the wines but on the grass in the courtyard where he would sleep in between the arrival of the morning and evening pickings. Legend has it that never a more capable press washer has been seen in the Rheingau. What he can do with pressurized water is pure art, so much so that the villagers would gather everyday to watch him rise from the grass and assume his position behind the nozzle. Men and women alike were compelled to stop and admire the fine figure he cut in rubber boots and overalls wielding all that pressure with such ease and style. Eric is now fittingly stationed in our more "fashionable" store in San Francisco, and yes ladies, he is single. If you would like to view him or get him to pose for pictures with the bottles of Dragonstone I am sure he would be happy to accommodate.

Now on to the important stuff...In a very small way our Eric along with the immensely talented, dedicated and insightful Johannes Leitz have turned what nature gave them into my favorite Dragonstone to date. As I mentioned in last month's column, if you found the '03 just a bit too rich for your taste or you were looking for just a little more zip, this is your wine. I predict this year's wine will be a runaway success and will again be called "the greatest Riesling value on the planet." So we have decided to sell some on Pre-Arrival starting this month for those loyal fans who want to get ahead of the game and secure the wine. Johannes has expanded his holdings in the Drachenstein, and there is more wine this year, but the demand is so great he is again already sold out at the estate. Do not delay.

The 2004 Rüdesheimer Drachenstein Qba ($13.99 pre arrival) is a glowing beauty, resonating with the bright juicy acid structure this vintage is showing. The nose reveals violets and white flowers with hints of red grapefruit like citrus notes and an energy that is electric and alive. The palate is infused with wet stone, currants and is again charged with energy, a happy jaunt through a spring garden. The finish is piquant and refreshing, inviting more inspection or shall we say more gulping. A wine of sheer unbridled joy, you can't help but smile. Raise a glass all! To Johannes and his lovely assistant Eric and to the wine now nicknamed the "Ericstone"! Enjoy life, Drink Riesling!

Austria: A Tribute, Marco DeFreitas

Last month you read the last article to be written by our dear friend Marco DeFreitas. He has left for Connecticut with his expecting wife to raise a family and live happily ever after in a place where you can actually buy a house for under 700K. Marco has been an advocate of the wines of Austria from day one, and his passion and enthusiasm will be missed, not to mention his wine collection, which we all happily drank. From wanting to saber champagne at a Saturday tasting to actually melting off the top of a port bottle with red hot tongs, he never ceased to add excitement to the store. He will be missed.

What you learn in this business is wine is about people, from the producers to the importers to the merchants and finally to you, the customers. When this works right, and we all pass on our love and enthusiasm, what happens is that we share in some of the most special wines in the world. Marco was always infecting others with his love for wine. And for this we wish him the best. Now on to the wines...

The 2003 Hiedler Grüner Veltliner Löss ($13.99) is one of the most versatile and intriguing wines in this store. If you have not experienced the pleasures of wonderfully spicy and rich Grüner Veltliner then you are missing out. This wine has it all: juicy vibrant citrus fruit laced with pepper and spice, a deep mineral core and a clear precise finish that is refreshing and long. The 2002 Thomas Leithner Grüner Veltliner "Privat" ($14.99) is relatively new to the U.S. market. Leithner has a long-established reputation in Austria, however, and his wines really showcase the complex, spicy nature of Grüner Veltliner when grown in the Kamptal's loess rich vineyards. The Privat is a selection of the best grapes from his best parcels, some of which spend a little time in wood. This gives the wine the richness and texture that highlight the lentil, pea-pod, and pepper spice of the varietal. Until next time...

Wine Talk, with the Wine Guys, Clink and Drink (Zugelder and Barr)

From NPR to K&L. From Car Talk to Chianti. From Boston to Bordeaux—please welcome... Clink and Drink!

Clink: What a career change, drinking wine all day long. Shoulda thoughta this years ago.

Drink: No kidd'n. Talkin' Pinot beats talking' Pontiacs any day.

C: Let's take a call. Hey, you're on Wine Talk. What's the problem? Hello, my name is Mark Amara.

C: Hiya mark. Where ya callin' from?

Moses Lake Washington.

D: Holy Moses! Warshington, eh?How long since ya lived in California?

How did you know I lived in California?

D: 'cause you demand brie with yer chawdonnay!

Drink recommended a couple of wines. I forgot the names.

The white had lovely floral, mineral and spice aromas, racy acidity and a lush wet-stone quality. It was bursting with apricot and citrus, and had an endless mineral laced finish. The red was all Bing cherries and cranberries. Tons of fruit with vanilla bean and soft, silky tannins. Great complexity. Sound familiar?

C: If Drink suggested them, it was probably the spit bucket!

D: Yeah, they're the 2003 Langwerth Von Simmern Rheingau Riesling QBA ($9.99 and Service) and the 2002 Iby Blaufrankisch Hochacker, Burgenland, Austria ($17.99 and Service). Glad ya liked 'em.

C: Guy's got a palate like an anvil. What about that Graves wine you were flogging? Isn't it made by Peter Graves or sumthin?

C: I'll bet the wines taste like dumpster produce. But man, are they cheap! Let's take another call. You're on Wine Talk. What's your name?

My name's Cris. I live in Troutdale Oregon. I had a cewpla reds that Drink talked abewt on your progum yesterday. What were they again?

C: I didn't know Château Spit Bucket came in white AND red! Ha-ha!

D: Nah! It was Château Septic Creek. Whaddaya think I pored in your goblet, mother's milk?

C: That would make you a boob of a different color. Hey Cris, how long since ya moved from Canada?

Eh? Hoowd you know 'bewt Canader?

C: Ha! Jeez, fugeddit Cris. Just a lucky guess. Why is your town named Troutdale? Was there a guy named Troutdale or somethin' like that?

Noh. There's lots of trewt in the rivers therebewts.

D: No kiddin' Cris. Time for a station break. Although weasels may rip my flesh when I say it, you are listening to Wine Talk, brought to you by K&L Wine Merchants.

C: O.K., we got another call. Welcome to Wine Talk. State your name and your business clearly, or we'll call you names and give da the business.

C: Awright awready. Whose on da line?

Hi guys! Hate your show. My name is Ralph. I'm a Redwood City resident by way of Daly City. I'm finally getting tired of putting ice cubes in my wine and would like to try something with some character. Maybe a red, and not too expensive. Any suggestions?

C: Yeah, sell your stock and buy a Ferrari!! Ha-ha!

D: Better yet, buy US a Ferrari!

C: Seriously Ralph, I got just the wine. But tell me, how long has it been since you moved from Daly City?

About 20 years. How'd you know?

C: 'Cause you told us, clam brain! Man, these Daly City kids sure are foggy. Anywhoo, this'll spark your interest, even if it won't light your bulb: 2002 Bodegas Salentein Syrah, Argentina ($12.99 and ****). This is a great value and just pure enjoyment to drink. Deeply colored and exploding with white pepper, white clove and layers of silky fruit. This little gem is expansive and rich on the palate with impressions of blackberry and plum supported by a touch of French oak.

This is Clyde. I'm a long-time caller but a first-time listener

D: Hiya Clyde. How's it goin' in Half Moon Bay? Your accent is so easy to guess I can do it with my ears closed!

C: He's got road apples on his vocal chords! Ha-ha!

D: Go easy. Don't want him cryin' in his milk. Ever milk a cow Clyde? Many times.

C: How is it? Udderly delightful? What's on your mind Pilgrim?

Well, I really love shopping at K&L for old and rare wines, but sometines your stock is so thin. What's the deal?

C: Good question cowboy! That's pretty impressive for Half Moon Bay! The answer is like this: The older the wine, the less there is available, as many of the stocks have been drunk up. Then there are collections that have not been stored properly, which we avoid like the plague. We have a reputation to consider!

D: Yeah, a bad one! But seriously folks, if youse are a customer of K&L you can add any wine to your personal waiting list. We'll send you an email as soon as it arrives. Such soivice! Call for details this very moment. Heya Clyde, what's yer last name?

Beffa.

D: Izzat Swiss? It don't sound like it.

C: But it does ring a bell...

It should. I'm your boss.

D: Oh hi Clyde. What's the word?

You guys are fired.

C: That's four words. Are you serious?

Udderly.

C: Although wild horses may choose the glue factory rather than hear these words, you are listening to Wine Talk, brought to you from K&L Wine Merchants!

D: And thanks to our production staff: Wyda Longface, Amanda Reckonwith, Earl Leigh Byrd and Willy O'Wowntey. Till next time...

Extraordinary Wines from Israel, Kosher for Passover

We have done a lot of tasting over the past months to find the best wines available for the upcoming holidays. These three wines from the Barkan winery come from the Kibbutz Hulda in the northeast of Israel. All three share European elegance and new-world-style clean fruit. Not only are they the best Kosher wines we tasted in the midprice range, they are very competitive with California or European non-Kosher wines at their price point. Even if you don't celebrate Passover, they are worth trying. They are that good!

The 2000 Barkan Reserve Chardonnay ($14.99) is made of 100% chardonnay grapes grown in the vineyards of the Upper Galilee. It has been barrel fermented and aged in French oak for nine months and has a round, pear-like nose, which is framed but not dominated by oak. On the palate it is clean and elegant. The texture is pleasantly light and the wine should pair well with a variety of foods. The 1999 Barkan Reserve Merlot ($17.99) is a wonderfully round and soft Merlot that is easy to enjoy with or without food. The wine has a plumy, generous nose with a little bit of herbal complexity. On the palate it manages to have lots of soft fruit without becoming sweet or lopsided. This is a very easy wine to drink! The 2000 Barkan Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon ($17.99) is a real charmer. It has a cool, curranty aroma and a clean purity of fruit. On the palate it is medium bodied and shows restraint with the oak. It is not overly tannic and would go very well with a variety of dishes, not just steak like so many overly muscled Cabs. Produced from 100% cabernet sauvignon grapes grown in the northeast of Israel, the Golan Heights, it is aged in 60% American and 40% French oak. -Gary Westby

The Queen of Southwestern Reds: Cahors

Last month I told you about Madiran, the massive wines often considered the King of Southwestern reds. Well, this month we meet the Queen of Southwestern reds: the sultry "black wine" of Cahors. Winemaking in this region started with the Romans. By the 12th century the wines of Cahors had become famous in places as far away as London and Russia. So popular (and apparently delicious) were that wines of Cahors that many merchants in neighboring Bordeaux became concerned that their wines would not be able compete. Therefore, from the Middle Ages to the Revolution, the Bordelais instituted a series of fiscal and commercial weapons in the form of high taxes and shipping restrictions, which seriously impaired winemakers from the haut-pays. The advent of phylloxera in the 10th century could easily have been the death knell for Cahors. A small but tenacious number of vignerons, however, re-planted and continued the winemaking tradition, albeit with often limited funds and pitiful resources. Thankfully, in the last 25 years Cahors has undergone a renaissance with a new generation of dedicated vignerons dramatically raising the bar on quality. The story of Cahors is truly the story of the underdog, and not only a story of overcoming but of triumph. There has never been a better time to try a "black wine" from Cahors. The Château du Cedre Cahors "Le Prestige" ($17.99) is a crackling, modern-styled Cahors composed of 90% malbec and 10% tannat from Pascal and Jean-Marc Verhaeghe of Château du Cedre, the leading estate of the region. The wine displays the classic black color of Cahors, along with aromatics of meaty black fruits, licorice and spicebox. The 2001 Prestige is a big wine...powerful yet sultry, with ripe tannins and lovely black cherry fruit to be enjoyed after 4-6 years of cellaring, or tonight after two hours of decanting.

Rich Whites for a Song

As I write this, I am preparing to leave for Burgundy. I'll report on my trip next month. This month I wanted to list many 2002 Red Burgundies not usually shown in the newsletter, so my column will be very short. As always, a complete list is at www.klwines.com. We are directly importing two spectacular wines from a tiny domaine in the hills of Mâcon in a town called Vergisson. Denis Barraud has a tiny estate called Domaine des Nembrets. His 2003 Domaine des Nembrets St. Veran ($13.99) has rich fruit, with lots of minerality, power and charm. The 2003 Domaine des Nembrets Pouilly Fuissé ($18.99) is also very rich and round but has a core of wonderful flintiness and length. À Santé.

2000 Sesta di Sopra Brunello di Montalcino ($42.99)

Last year's 95-point Wine Spectator surprise follows with another truly sensational wine. The nose just jumps out at you: spicy, complex, wild cherry fruit with hints of sage and leather, intriguing, seductive and inviting. On the palate the wine is broad, full-bodied and rich yet not heavy. It has an elegance, more like a lithe, muscular athlete, supple yet forceful, and is full of the complex character evident in the nose yet is slightly plumier, meatier, warmer, sweeter. As the wine lies on your palate, its incredible length begins to blossom, as you follow its ever lengthening finish depositing its mineral character, iron-like, focused, powerful and very, very long. This wine will be able to be drunk now with a couple of hours in a decanter but will continue to improve easily for another decade plus.

2000 Baricci "Colombaio di Montosoli" Brunello di Montalcino ($36.99) "Sweet earth" were my first notes for this wine. That classic "Montosoli" nose, elegantly spicy, full of cinnamon, cardamom, anise and leather. The wine exudes a rather feminine mystique: lithe, supple, delicate, giving then taking, hinting not demanding, complex however simple, yet leaves you with a warm, round and complete feeling on the palate. The finish is a delicate reminder, not a forceful demonstration of power. It is intriguing, subtle and memorable. Drink now with a couple of hours in a decanter, or allow the wine to continue to evolve for another 4-5 years or more.

2000 Poggiarellino Brunello di Montalcino ($29.99)

There is a certain sweetness that emanates from the nose. It is the ripeness of the grapes, the plumy and chocolate cherry character, unstoppable, flowing powerfully from the glass, layering flavors across the palate like sedimentary deposits. Warmth, dense richness, lush thickness, a powerful pulsing pumps the ripe plumy character across the palate, pleasing, warming, enriching and filling the palate. The finish is sunny, warming, complete, balanced and lingering with more chocolaty intrigue. Drink now with a couple of hours in a decanter or let it continue to evolve for another 4-5 years, and then age gracefully.

2000 La Fortuna Brunello di Montalcino ($36.99)

A warm, sweet ripeness is found in this wine. Dark and intense plum aromatics rise from the glass and give you an immediate sense of density, weight and richness. The wine is so supple on the palate, easy like the first warm day of spring, comfortable, invigorating and relaxing. Complex, chocolaty amarena (Italian wild cherry) flavors dance around your palate and come together for a long, graceful finish that would state with a rather clipped British accent "rather well-balanced." Drink now with a couple of hours in a decanter, or allow this wine to improve and continue to evolve for another 4-5 years and then age gracefully.

SPECIALTY WHISKEYS

My father used to tell me wonderful stories about making "Corn Liqueur" in the back hills of West Virginia when he was a boy. In honor of his birth month, here are a few examples of some great whiskey made here in the U.S.A.

—Susan Purnell

A. H. Hirsch 16-year Bourbon ......$79.99

Michter's Distillery in Schaefferstown, Pennsylvania was the foster home of A.H. Hirsch Reserve bourbon. Dating back to the mid-eighteenth century, Michter's was distilling whiskey. As early as 1753 there was a small distillery on this Pennsylvania farmstead; that's long before Kentucky was even settled. Ranking with the world's best whiskies, the A.H. Hirsch 16-year-old, is without question, one of the absolute highest quality available today. Distilled in the spring of 1974 (and no longer produced), this rare Bourbon whisky was distilled in the time-honored Kentucky pot-still tradition, a slower, more workintensive, more expensive relic of a bygone era. Hirsch Reserve stands in the class of top-flight single malt Scotch Whisky and Grand Champagne Cognac. Hirsch Reserve whiskies offer a unique taste experience showing silky smooth texture and perfectly balanced flavors of sweet oak, maple and spice. The aftertaste is round, rich, very long and mellow.

Black Maple Hill, 14-year-old, Single Barrel.....$44.99

4 Stars Spirits Journal rating. Black Maple Hill bourbons are incredibly smooth, with complex flavors that range from baked apple pie, to smoky and rich butterscotch. The 14-year-old is the sweetest and most floral of the Black Maple Hill Bourbons that we carry. Cask #147, 47.5 alc./vol.

Blanton's Bourbon ......$46.99

The nose is very deep and satisfying. The taste has a masterful start with powerful dry vanilla notes in perfect harmony with hints of honey and strong caramel. The long, creamy caramel holds the fort until some late soft peppers arrive to spice things up. The underlying dryness amid the spice and honey really makes for a bourbon that should suit all tastes.

Bulleit Bourbon Frontier Whiskey ......$19.99

Bulleit is a small family distillery in Lawrenceburg. This whiskey has been aged seven years and has a high rye component in the mash, which gives the bourbon a rich, oak aroma with hints of vanilla. Made in small batches and very, very well balanced!

Elijah Craig 18-year-old Bourbon.....$35.99

This is an outstanding hand-crafted, single-barrel bourbon at a wonderful price. Aged 18 years in new charred oak barrels. The color is a very deep amber with a burnt orange tones and ideal clarity. The mouth presence is divine, showing equal parts elegance and command. Layered flavors of cream, almonds, vanilla extract and smoke.

Elmer T. Lee Single Barrel Bourbon ......$19.99

91 points Wine Enthusiast! Medium gold in color; the nose brings notes of butterscotch, clover, vanilla and old leather. The full body bears a palate with an almost wine-like character that balances intense fruits, honey and vanilla with a light spiciness that shows off the distiller's craft. The finish is long and warm.

Evan Williams Single Barrel Bourbon.....$24.99

92 points from the Malt Advocate! Our staff loves master distillers Craig and Parker Beam. We believe that the Evan Williams Vintage Single Barrel is one of the best bourbons for its price on the market today. The craftsmanship and the quality is what really makes this bottle shine!

Michter's USA #1 Single Barrel Straight Rye Whiskey Michter's 10 Year Single Barrel Straight Rye.....$47.99

Straight Rye distilled from select American rye. Single Barrel. Limited quantities. Fire-charred, new American oak barrels. 92.8 Proof (46.4% alc.)

Old Forester Birthday Bourbon Fall 1995.....$36.99

This Vintage release of Old Forester was chosen to honor the birthday of George Garvin Brown, the Bourbon industry's pioneer. Once bottled, its unique character will never be replicated again. This spicy complex bourbon was entered into the Old Forester brick Warehouse L during a cycling period. The interior temperature of the warehouse was warm and humid so the pores of the charred white oak barrel were open. This allowed the new bourbon to soak deeply into the barrel wood where it quickly began to absorb the perfect balance of wood, confectionary and spice character. The barrels were aged on the upper floors of Warehouse L and were exposed to sun from the east, west and south. It's this heat and moisture combination that contributes to the interesting aroma. palate and finish.

Old Potrero Single Malt Straight Rye Whiskey......$56.99

Old Potrero is the recreation of the original spirits produced from grain in early America. Distilled in a small copper pot still from a mash of 100% rye malt, this release was aged for two years in oak barrels at the distillery on Potrero Hill in San Francisco. 45% alc./vol.

Pappy Van Winkle Family Reserve 15 year Bourbon ......$42.99

Julian P. "Pappy" Van Winkle, Sr., started working as a salesman for W.L. Weller & Sons wholesale in Louisville, KY in 1893 at the age of eighteen, just after he graduated from Centre College in Danville, KY. This bourbon represents a younger expression of the famous 20-year-old Pappy Van Winkle's Family Reserve. The whiskey in this bottle was produced according to an exclusive family wheated recipe and was specially selected from barrels in the distillery's warehouses in Kentucky. It has remained undisturbed for 15 years to age in deep-charred heavy oak...untouched by human hands, unhurried by time.

Pappy Van Winkle Family Reserve 20 year Bourbon ...........$78.99

99 points Wine Enthusiast. The nose is intensely fruited but also bears a tantalizing citrus zest note. The body is huge and almost chewable, and the palate is tremendously buttery with some sherry notes, a dash of dried fruits and rich, creamy vanilla.

Sazerac 18-year-old Rye Whiskey .....$45.99

95 points Malt Advocate: "This is an amazing, truly unique whiskey. There is no rye whiskey on the market that is as old or perfectly balanced ... For all who can't get enough flavors and intensity in your whiskey, your search has ended."

W. L. Weller 12-year-old Bourbon.....$16.99

According to Paul Pacult, of The Spirit Journal: "The deep bronze color beautifully reflects the light showing perfect purity; the initial nosing pass finds fully nature aromas of lanolin, almond oil, and creamed corn—in the middle stage sniffings, following several minutes of air contact, a toasty oaky/vanilla perfume takes the aromatic helm—the fourth and last whiff highlights the oily grainy quality that's firm and pungent—a high-spirited, lusciously toasty, and animated bouquet that has top-notch Bourbon written all over it; the dry, complex, and toasty palate entry is reminiscent of the Centennial 10 Year Old's grand entry—the mid-palate flavor profile is heavily wheated (like Wheat Thins crackers), oily, layer, moderately sweet, and sap-like; the finish is long, sweet, oaky, and intensely grainy all for an unbelievable price."

Loire, Alsace and Beyond: Trinch!!

Trinch! is the sound in French of two glasses clinking together. There could not be a better name for this wine than that. Pierre and Catherine Breton have rightfully earned their spot at the top of red wine production in the Loire and all of France for that matter. They are champions of organic agriculture and are at the forefront of making wines with the absolute minimum dosage of sulpher. For those of you not yet on the cabernet franc bandwagon, you must promise to take all of the ideas and notions you have about the grape and its wines from the Loire and throw them out the window. Next, pop a bottle of this wine in the fridge for 10-15 minutes, then pull out its synthetic cork (that's right no "corked" bottles) and get ready for cabernet franc in its most luscious and sexy expression. The balmy vintage of 2003 has imparted a juiciness and texture rarely found here. Join me and the millions of others (I know for a fact there are at least 16 of us) that are "Gettin' in to franc" this month and pop a bottle of Trinch!!

2003 Pierre and Catherine Breton Bourgueil Trinch! ($12.99) Sexy is one word for it, refreshing is another. How about fun, supple, rich, versatile, I could go on but the bottom line is that this is tasty stuff. You will rejoice in its ability to go with just about any food you can throw at it. You will revel in its rich currant-y fruit with hints of lavender. You will be in awe of how quickly the bottom of the bottle seems to show up. If I were Jim Barr I would give this 19.5 cat heads or whatever those are. I await your comments...Enjoy!

Join One of Our "Wine of the Month" Clubs

I often hear from members of our Wine Clubs who are surprised that we offer certain wines at such low prices. Many of the wines we send out each month are well known and can be found in fine wine shops across the country. Sometimes the prices at your local wine shop can be three times or more what a Wine Club member pays. We are able to offer these gems for a number of reasons. It is ultimately the quality, however, that determines whether or not a wine becomes a monthly selection. We have many talented and specialized palates among our tremendous staff, and we use their abilities to help choose the winners. The employees at K&L can be quite vocal when a wine displeases them, and all comments are welcome. Those few wines chosen have certainly met the test.

We also often include some of our direct imports. With the Euro at an all-time high, import prices continue to rise. Each year, we send each of our buyers to the country and region of their specialty, and they come back with wonderful wines that we directly import, resulting in huge savings. We are able to offer these wines at tremendous savings. As with our domestic purchases, the quality of the wine is of paramount importance.

Wine Club members are now able to take advantage of numerous special offers and Wine Club re-orders directly through our website. The benefits of being a Club member have dramatically increased, and we invite you to join one (or more) of our Clubs and see why we have so many happy, and oftentimes surprised, members. Cheers!
